Services Liberalisation...

Nature and Forms

- Trade in services liberalisation has taken different forms in the region
 - Unilaterally in favour of adjustment programmes
 - Bilaterally in the context of regional integration processes (movement of persons within ECOWAS and UEMOA)
 - Multilaterally within the framework of the GATS negotiations (commitments in tourism and other areas)

Services Liberalisation...

Unilaterally – at the National Level

- Undertaken by a number of Member States as part of economic reforms generally
 - Guided by the need to develop a competitive economy
 - Means of developing the sector
 - Input into the development of a competitive economy
 - Favourable impact on the development of the sector
 - Increased private sector participation and investment in services
 - Generated competition and growth in the levels and quality of services provision

Service Liberalisation...

Multilateral – at the WTO Level

- ECOWAS not a Member of the WTO
 - ETLS notified to the WTO
 - Essentially a Goods Agreement
- Trade in services liberalisation undertaken at the level of Member States
 - With the exception of Liberia, all Member States are members of the WTO
 - Commitments have been made in the different sub-sectors
 - ECOWAS and UEMOA have chosen to adopt the Negative List Approach

Service Liberalisation...

Multilateral – at the WTO Level

Sectors	Number of Member States with Commitments in sub-sector
Business Services	6
Communication Services	6
Construction Services	5
Distribution Services	1
Educational Services	4
Environmental Services	2
Financial Services	7
Health Services	3
Tourism Services	14
Cultural Services	5
Transport Services	10

Services Liberalisation...

Bilaterally – at the ECOWAS Level

- The liberalisation approach
 - ECOWAS and UEMOA have chosen to adopt a Negative List Approach
- Main Areas
 - National Treatment
 - Applies to all service activities covered by the Agreement
 - Obligation depends on consideration of similarity between foreign services and services specific to the importing country
 - Market Access
 - ECOWAS and UEMOA Agreements do not set up areas of Market Access for quantitative restrictions that are non-discriminatory in nature
 - MFN Treatment
 - There are no rules for MFN treatment concerning the right of establishment and the movement of natural persons in ECOWAS and UEMOA

Services Liberalisation...

Bilaterally – at the ECOWAS Level

- The Movement of Natural Persons
 - UEMOA: No specification of the category of natural persons
 - ECOWAS: Only identifies these categories:
 - Seasonal Workers
 - Migrant Workers
 - Occupational Travellers
 - Frontier Workers
 - In order to work, professionals must:
 - Either have the required local qualifications or have their foreign qualifications recognised
 - Highly-skilled professions
 - Article 5 of ECOWAS Protocol of Establishment states, among others, that “to facilitate access to non-salaried activities and the exercise of such activities, the Commission shall recommend to the Council, which shall propose to the Authority that decisions be taken for the mutual recognition, at Community level, of diplomas, certificates, and other qualifications.”

Services Liberalisation...

Bilaterally – at the ECOWAS Level

- Rules of Origin

- No specific rule of origin is defined for services
- ECOWAS and UEMOA have somewhat liberal rule of origin for legal persons
- Benefits are extended to legal people who are constituted or otherwise organised under the law of that other member, and are engaged in substantive business operations (or have their main business address) in the territory of that member or any other member, regardless of the national identity of those who hold or control these persons
- For naturalised persons, the advantages are limited to community nationals and not extended to permanent residents

Services Liberalisation...

The EPA Trade in Services Chapter

- 13 Member States signed the WA-EU EPA in December 2014, which commits them to further negotiations on a comprehensive EPA, to include trade in services
 - The proposed Services Chapter will be made up of two major components
 - The main Agreement, including the scope and coverage; movement of natural persons; and the extension of market access, national treatment and most-favoured-nation treatment to commercial presence and the cross-border supply of services
 - A set of annexes and tables in which each country is expected to list all limitations to market access and national treatment by sector (and subsector) and by mode
 - Reactivation of the Technical Working Group on Services
 - Working to adopt a Common position towards the negotiations

Challenges...

Are there challenges?

- Absence of clearly defined road map, weak negotiating, regulatory and implementation capacities. There is no clear strategy for the services sector in the national development plan of some Member States
- There is no holistic strategy for the services sector negotiations as most governments look at services sector in a segmented manner.
- Member States consider services in a piecemeal, segmented manner which reflects more the particular characteristics of individual sectors than their role in the overall economy.
- Inter-institutional Committees on Trade Negotiations in States lack legal backing
 - No budget and funding from government
 - Findings and recommendations are no binding
 - The different sector Ministries (agencies) narrow their focus on their sectors only
- Weaknesses of Member states can be addressed through a regional approach and can be better coordinated both at the preparatory stage as well as during the negotiations. ECOWAS and the WAMZ should coordinate the process of negotiations.

Conclusion...

Summing Up

- Although ECOWAS service industries are large and increasingly important, they are also uncompetitive and inefficient when compared with their peers
 - A major shake-up is clearly needed to raise competition and improve levels of service delivery within these sectors
 - ECOWAS Member States lack the capacity to implement and oversee complex regulatory reforms
- Regional/International agreements can provide an external stimulus and some incentive for ECOWAS Member States to engage in services liberalisation
 - Platform to source additional expertise and resources to support domestic regulation and reform
 - Direct liberalisation of sectors as opposed to overall strategy approach?

Thank you!!!
