To this end, Summit directed Council to finalise on-going work on alternative sources of funding and report to the next Ordinary Summit.
22. Summit resolved to scale up implementation of regional infrastructure as a key enabler to economic integration in support of industrialization.
23. Summit noted progress made with regard to representation of women in political and decision making positions and commended Member States that have achieved high female representation at State leadership, Legislature and Judiciary levels, and other senior positions both in public and private sector. Summit further urged Member States to adopt appropriate measures to improve and sustain these achievements.
24. Summit noted the regional food security situation which indicated a decline in overall cereal production and availability, largely due to unfavourable weather condition which was characterised by prolonged dry spells, floods and cyclones. As a result, the Region will require food and other humanitarian assistance during 2015/2016 marketing year. Member States were urged to continue implementing the Regional Agriculture Policy and relevant protocols in order to improve agricultural production and food security.

25. In the area of climate change, Summit underscored the need for the region to continue to work with all progressive partners to ensure the protection of the planet and strive to build consensus on a continental basis in preparation for COP 21 to be held in Paris, France, in December, 2015. Summit further resolved that the region works together to ensure that the region contributes to a successor statute to the Kyoto Protocol that expires in 2020. To this end, Summit directed the Ministers of Environment to finalise the SADC Common Position for COP21, during their meeting in October 2015.
26. Summit noted achievements recorded in addressing the burden of HIV and AIDS, TB and Malaria. To this end, Summit directed the Secretariat to monitor the situation and coordinate the necessary regional interventions with Member States in order to ensure that HIV and AIDS is no longer a threat to public health.
27. Summit approved the resolution on the establishment of the Southern African Development Community Administrative Tribunal (SADCAT) and the Declaration on Youth Development and Empowerment in SADC.
28. Summit directed the Secretariat to develop a mechanism to honour the legacy of the SADC Founding Fathers, to be submitted for consideration at the next Ordinary Summit.
29. Summit endorsed international calls for the United Kingdom to expeditiously end its unlawful occupation of the Chagos Archipelago, including Diego Garcia, with a view to enabling Mauritius to effectively exercise its sovereignty over the Archipelago, without which the full decolonisation of Africa is not complete.
30. Summit also received farewell remarks by H.E Jakaya Mrisho Kikwete the President of the United Republic of Tanzania, who is nearing the end of his Term of Office as stipulated in the constitution of the United Republic of Tanzania. His statement was delivered on his behalf by the Rt Hon, Mizengo Kayanza Pinda, Prime Minister of the United Republic of Tanzania in which he emphasized the importance of SADC to continue working together for a common cause. He expressed his appreciation for the opportunity to serve SADC.
