International
Open Data Charter

3RD INTERNATIONAL OPEN DATA CONFERENCE 2015

Enabling the data revolution

Hosts

IDRC | CRDI
International Development Research Centre
Centre de recherches pour le développement international

THE WORLD BANK
IBRD • IDA

Government of Canada
Gouvernement du Canada

od OpenData
for development network

opendatacharter.net

2

Enabling
the Data Revolution
An International Open Data Roadmap

CONFERENCE REPORT

open data charter

International Open Data Charter

In consultation with a number of international organizations, the OGP Open Data Working Group has developed a revised International Open Data Charter.

It contains 5 principles:

o Open by Default;

o Quality and Quantity;

o Useable by All;

o Engagement and Empowerment of Citizens; and o Collaboration for Development and Innovation.

Within each principle, a handful of clauses clarify the obligations for countries and organizations implementing open data in their own jurisdiction.

open data charter

Charter Principles
Consultation/Finalization Process

A. Launched at IODC 2015

B. Global Consultation Closed July 31

C. Finalization of the text – August 31

D. Agreement/Finalization of Principles – Early September

open data charter

ODC Working Model

Principles

Resource Centre

Implementation WG

Technical WG

(External) Accountability Mechanisms

open data charter

opendatacharter.net

Road-Map and Milestones To IODC 2016

- Stewards In Person Meeting at ConDatos 2015 (Santiago, Sept. 7)

- ODC Call to Action - At UNGA (NY, Sept.)

- Rolling Launches for Adoption: (OGP, G20, COP21, etc)

- In ternational Open Data Conference – Madrid - October 2016

open data charter

open data charter

Thank You